Much is being done to change and endanger the status quo of Jerusalem which has held for at least 250 years. The Israeli authorities are in a rush to alter the character of the Holy City through various Judaization scheme. President Donald Trump recently recognized Jerusalem as Israel's eternal capital and moved the American Embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem. These actions have ramifications not only for the local communities but also for the entire Middle East and the world. This panel will examine what can be done to counteract the negative practices toward Jerusalem.

The Palestinian economy faces many unique challenges but also has a huge potential for growth. This panel will present the current and projected state of the Palestinian economy and examines how the Diaspora youth can positively impact the economy through investment and knowledge sharing. The panel utilizes the experience of leaders in Palestine and in the Diaspora to explore opportunities for creating jobs, building a strong infrastructure, and capacity building to prepare the economy for the future State of Palestine. We will hear from representatives in information technology, the food industry, and the stock market and learn what role the youth can play.

Empowering and Connecting Palestinian Youth from Around the World

Moderator: Sir Rateb Rabie

1. Roundtable Discussion:

No matter the distance, Palestinian youth in the Diaspora, like all people of Palestinian origin, remain attached to their national roots. Palestinian youth in Palestine, like all people in Palestine, long to reunite with their brothers and sisters in the Diaspora. After reuniting, each feels fulfilled and whole again. This session will shed light on how the youth can create and foster a variety of connections that will enable them to live Palestine, actualize their potential, become active participants in their communities, and advocate for justice and peace.

03:15 pm - 04:15 pm

2. Breakout Sessions:

Participants split into groups, each focusing on a topic (see below) in order to explore ways of working together, of helping each other, so as to better connect in support of mutual benefit, national community advancement, and the future of Palestine.

Topics for Breakout Sessions:

- A. Education, and Job Creation
- B. Solidarity, Advocacy, and Organizational Mobilization
- C. Social Media and Networking

04:15 pm - 05:00 pm

3. Where Do We Go from Here?

Presentation of summaries of breakout sessions and of resolution regarding "The Palestinian Youth Look Forward"

"WE ARE ALL ONE NATION, WE ARE ALL PALESTINIANS, WHEREVER WE ARE, REGARDLESS OF HOW NEAR OR FAR"
